

GCCUD invites you to the...

Fathers' Forum Series 2007-2008

Co-sponsored by Liberation Programs/Greenwich Family & Youth Options

Fathers' Forum Purpose: Provide Greenwich dads with information and skills to help them make the best, most enlightened choices in developing relationships with their children for the purpose of protecting the children from high-risk behavior.

October 6, 2007

Safe Parenting Toolbox

Melissa Meehan, Teen Counselor and Prevention Specialist – Personal insights from a counselor on the front lines with kids. How does trouble start? What can dads do to prevent trouble?

November 3, 2007

Community Resources Available for Parents

Panel of Police, Educators, Therapists, Lawyer, Hospital staff provide resources, advice, places to turn when in need.

December 1, 2007

Developing Communications Skills for Parents w Teens

An interactive workshop led by Sonya Rencevicz, LCSW, that will provide tools, skills, examples, and small group practice to improve communications between dads and teens.

Jan 14 - 17, 2008

Special Author Featured Event

Jeffrey Marx, author of Season of Life, will share his insights for all Greenwich parents. See special flyer for time (evening) and location.

February 9, 2008

What our Kids are Dealing with (in high-risk situations)...Part 1

Improv panel with area high school teens - In Part 1 they will portray "high risk" events our children are facing today, explore the choices they face and what influences their decisions. Barry Halpin will moderate..

April 5, 2008

How to Develop Better Communications with Teens...Part 2 - Barry

Halpin will return with another group of high school students to provide insights and examples of typical parental communications. This will include role-playing between the audience and the kids and a panel discussion with the actors regarding what they experience on a daily basis.

May 3, 2008

Becoming a Better Dad

John Hamilton, noted Family Therapist will present on skills and awareness needed to become a better dad – improving relationship-building skills

June 7, 2008

Hold the date – program to be announced!.

General info:

date – Saturday mornings, see above!

time - coffee @ 8:00 AM; program 8:15 - 9:30

place - Greenwich YMCA, 50 East Putnam Ave.

Parking is available on the street and in the lot behind building on Mason Street.

contact – Fathers' Forum at gccud@yahoo.com

Greenwich Coalition to Combat Underage Drinking

Community advocates to reduce underage drinking in Greenwich

